TRACK 37 STUDIOS ANNOUNCES
FORMATION OF INDEPENDENT RECORD LABEL
AND RELEASE OF FIRST ALBUM

SWEET LIFE
By
JOHN JEFFREY HEALEY

Track 37 Studios hereby announces its long overdue arrival onto the contemporary adult music scene in the greater Boston area. With the help of a small band of musicians, singers, artists and close friends, Track 37 Studios has just completed production of its first major album by new artist on the scene, singer/songwriter Jeff Healey.

A complimentary copy of the album entitled SWEET LIFE is enclosed.

As a self-taught musician since his teen years, Jeff has since honed his musical, writing and production skills by studying and jamming with a number of skilled musicians, artists and producers over the last 20 years. In addition to writing the songs on the album, Jeff contributed performances on guitar, piano, harmonica and percussion. Other major contributors to the Sweet Life sessions were Tom Beier (engineer and musician), Greg Healey (vocalist) and Ted Broughey on drums.

We invite you to listen to the album and freely play album tracks on all your musical venues. Please contact John Leger (978) 840-0229, or Jeff Healey (978) 342-2651, or email us at Track37Studios@verizon.net for more information.

ABOUT TRACK 37 STUDIOS

Track 37 Studios was born in 1999 in the converted attic of a large Queen Anne Victorian home in Fitchburg, Massachusetts. Filled with some of the latest digital gadgets direct off the shelves of the local music store, and an army of guitars assembled by Jeff Healey over the last 25 years, Jeff and a few close friends began creating what is now known to a small but growing group of avid local listeners as the Track37 sound. A quirky blend of rock, pop, new age and folk music which often celebrates and at times laments the trials of life – geared to the adult listener.

Look for future releases.
